During its 13year history, the tournament has become the most important box-lacrosse event in Europe and it is highly appreciated by both players and spectators for its game quality and pleasant atmosphere. The afternoon sport program and Saturday evening exhibition game, plus the Sunday finals are the traditional highlights of the event which attracts hundreds of spectators annually. TV and sport media cover the games, and a professional film about the tournament is traditionally shot. Thanks to the upcoming World Indoor Lacrosse Championship held just 2 weeks after the Memorial in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, the tournament will be the last preparation for several national teams. Ireland and England have already expressed their interest in taking part. For pictures and references from the previous annuals visit www.lcc-radotin.cz.
